

If i'm paying for television, i have every right to record anything that comes into my house for the purposes of watching later.